Tales of Lucy Blue

Empty words, falling on ears Which have never heard Hollow lies, comin' from Lost, hung-up and lonely guys Through the night, make a sight Other rider looks so true Sinnin', spinnin' tales of Lucy Blue

Piercing smile filling her face For a while Closin' door, leaving the heart open And wounded more Gone away, lonely day Turning grey with no clue Faking, making tales of Lucy Blue Oh, oh, oh

Restless night, longing for love Beneath the neon light Desperate hands reachin' for someone Who'll understand Stroll around through the town Lost and found when it's due Sellin', tellin' tales of Lucy Blue

Yeah Lucy Blue, one or two Just for you, hey yeah Tales of Lucy Blue Bob Seger
