

Borderline

Bob Sinclar

I'm trying to strip off in your mind
Follow the show
You're gonna fall through desire
Just let it grow
And keep on dancing together
Over the flashlight
Lay down with me to get better
Slowly trick me tonight

Take me to your borderline
I swear that I could love it
There's no need to be shy
Take me to the other side
Of your sickness story
And your heartless life

Time to play with all my sins
Denying our million lies
Let me see your sweetest dreams
Till we fall in each other's eyes
Don't let me go
Before I stopped being confused
It's time to realize
You need me more than you know
Ain't got no time to lose
No rules to deny

Take me to your borderline
I swear that I could love it
There's no need to be shy
Take me to the other side
Of your sickness story
And your heartless life

Oh, take me to your borderline
I swear that I could love it
There's no need to be shy
Take me to the other side
Of your sickness story
And your heartless life

Borderline
Borderline
Borderline
(Take me to your heartless life)

Borderline
Borderline
(Take me to your the borderline)
