

Reason

Reasons

When it's dark and it's cold
There's a reason I need your warmth
It's because of your fire
That's the reason i'm waiting for
No reason to be ashamed
But reason for me to say
Oh girl do we have to wait
Yeah girl, do we have to wait any longer

Reason number one

First I need your love
Isn't that reason enough
Reason number two
All I see is you
Reason is that I need you

Reasons

Now even though we've been down

There's no reason to be afraid
Cause we can start anytime and forget about yesterday

Oh no reason to say you're scared
The reason is waiting there
Just open your heart to me
We're stronger now, girl, you see, yeah
So much stronger

Reason number one

First I need your love
Isn't that reason enough
Reason number two
All I see is you
And there's another reason too

Reasons

Reason, ninety-six, baby
Come here quick
There's another reason too
Reasons
