

Don't you know me, I'm a savior?
And it's time we discuss behavior
Don't you know me, the messiah?
And it's time we set your soul on fire

I'd like to think that you're the only one
Turn your back on my only son
Why did you keep on turnin' me away?
Why did you keep on turnin' me away?

And every time you think you know too much
You're paralyzed to release my touch
Why did you keep on turnin' me away?
I can keep on turnin you away?

Your kind, you're just a waste of time
'Cause I know you're kind
You're just a waste of time

Don't you know me, I'm a savior?
And it's time we discuss behavior
Don't you know me, the messiah?
And it's time we set your soul on fire

You try to say you're not an open book
I had another time to take a look
Why did you keep on turnin' me away?
Why did you keep on turnin' me away?

Your kind, you're just a waste of time
Yes, I know your kind, you're just a waste of time
Save your time, you're just a waste of time
Yes, I know your kind, you're just a waste of time

I remember when you were so young
You used to care so much
About everything and everyone
Yes, I remember when she broke your heart

You didn't call my name no you left it all so easily
'Cause you're changed now, rearranged now
You seem strange now and you don't believe in anyone
'Cause it's over, yeah, it's over, I'm coming home, son

Your kind, you're just a waste of time
Yes, I know your kind, you're just a waste of time
Save your time, you're just a waste of time
Yes, I know your kind, you're just a waste of time
