

Darling Don't

Bobby Bare

I have given you my heart
You could break it all apart
But, darling, don't
Promise you won't

You could give me back my ring
Call our love a passing flame
But, darling, don't
Promise you won't

Oh, just a thought of you so sweet
Leaves me sighing
Yet just a thought that you would cheat
Leaves me crying

You could end our love affair
Just by saying you don't care
But, darling, don't
Promise you won't

Now I've offered you my all
You could really let me fall
But, darling, don't
Promise you won't

You could slip around on me
And I'd never know, you see
But, darling, don't
Promise you won't

For just a thought of you so sweet
Leaves me sighing
Yet just a thought that you would cheat
Leaves me crying

You could end our love affair
Just by saying you don't care
But, darling, don't
Promise you won't
