

Dollar Pool Fool

Bobby Bare

She's a tantalizin' stepper and a mighty handsome dresser
You can hear them neck bones pop when she walks by She's a very astute mover everything seems to behoove her
And she never for an instant wondered why

Clean across the table I was totally unable
To tear my eyes away and watch the game
When she slide out of her coat Lord it made a big knot in my throat
And I knew right then I'd never be the same

Two mad men don't feel no pain
Or care if it is all in vain
The night was cold and we were hot
Diet pills and dollar pool
Make a man a fool

Wonder if that other guy knew that he was a gonna die
Or if he heard my pool cue slice the air
I tried to call the other day but my whole family moved away
Guess I'm lucky not to get the chair

Two mad men don't feel no pain
Or care if it is all in vain
The night was cold and we were hot
Diet pills and dollar pool
Make a man a fool
