

Love Is A Cold Wind

Bobby Bare

Love is a cold wind when it blows away from you
And you watch it go it hurts to know there's nothing you can do
You're all alone again and love is a cold wind.

Love is a rain storm but it only rains on you
And there's no one there who seems to care no one can close thr ough
And inside you're never warm 'cause love is a rain storm.

But when she was here love was a breezy morning
Filled with the sun as warm as a smile but now it's done.

Love is a cold wind as it blows away from you
For you find your way to yesterday what else is there to do
'Cause you're all alone again and love is a cold wind.

You're all alone again and love is a cold wind.

Love is a cold wind love is a cold wind.
