

Love You

Bobby Bare

I love you, you, you
No one else will ever do
Always true, true, true
I'll forever be to you.

I love you, no one new
Will never ever do
I'll always be true to you
'Cause I love you.

The wedding bells are ringing
In the chapel just over the hill
They're ringing for the wedding
Of my best friend Bill.

He wed the girl I loved and I'd rather to die
Than to live I got to choose
'Cause I've lost her
And I've lost the friend.

But there's one thing I'd never lose
That's the way that she says.

I love you, you, you
No one else will ever do
Always true, true, true
I'll forever be to you.

Yes, in her shy sorta way
I could leave you here now
'Cause I like she was here today
She said she would always love me
She would always be good and true

Yes, that's one thing
I'll never forget the way she says
I'll always be true to you
'Cause I love you

I love you, you, you
No one else will ever do
Always true, true, true
I'll forever be to you.

I'll always be true to you
'Cause I love you...
