

Lullabys, Legends And Lies

Bobby Bare

Gather round fellows I'll tell you some tales
About murder and blueberry pies
And heroes and hells and bottomless wells
And lullabys, legends and lies.

And gather round ladies come sit at my feet
I'll sing about warm sunny skies
There's mermaids and beans and lovin' machines
In my lullabys, legends and lies.

Lullabys, legends and lies and lies
Lullabys, legends and lies
I'll sing you a song then I'll shuffle along
With my lullabys, legends and lies .

I may make you wonder I may make you smile
I may bring the tears to your eyes
But when I disappear Lord you'll wish I was here
With more lullabys, legends and lies.

So open the bottle and pass a guitar
And look in my warm lovin' eyes
I'll take you to places you ain't been before
With my lullabys, legends and lies.

Lullabys, legends and lies
Lullabys, legends and lies
I'll sing you a song then I'll shuffle along
With my lullabys, legends and lies...
