

Sittin' and Thinkin'

Bobby Bare

(Please baby, wait for me, wait for me.)

I got smashed last night on a bottle of gin
And I had a fight with my best girl friend
When I'm drinkin' I am nobody's friend
But please baby wait for me until they let me out again.

I know the same thing has happened before
And everytime it does I hate it more and more
But when I'm drinkin' I am nobody's friend
But please baby, wait for me until they let me out again.

Spent a whole lotta time sittin' and thinkin'
I guess I spent too much time sittin' and thinkin' bout you
If I didn't spend so much time sittin' and drinkin'
We'd still have the love that we once knew.

Oh, I won't promise the same thing won't happen again
But I can promise it'll be a long long time till then
'Cause when I'm drinkin' I am nobody's friend
Please baby, wait for me until they let me out again...
