

The End

Bobby Bare

For a while
We only lasted for a while
Then our love went out of style
We kept trying
But dreams
Didn't we have a million dreams
Back when our love meant everything
Now it's dying

The end
First time I've seen a good love die
The end
I can't help but wonder why
Wonder why
Is that a tear drop in your eye

Love
We'd make love all night long
How could anything go wrong
Guess that's how love begins
But time
Taught us things we didn't know
Like how love can come and go
And quickly end

The end
First time I've seen a good love die
The end
Is this where we say goodbye
Goodbye
Is that a tear drop in your eye
