

Things Change

Bobby Bare

Cowboy hat will blow off in the wind
Women rule the world, not the man
And things change but then
You turn around and they change again

Things change, don't blink your eye
'Cause if you do, they'll pass you by
About the time you think you've locked it in
Things change, then change again

That winter bummed you out, just wait for spring
In the middle of a draught just wait for rain
If you think your life's run out and you can't win
There's no doubt things gonna change again

Things change, don't blink your eye
'Cause if you do, they'll pass you by
About the time you think you've locked it in
Things change, then change again

Son, that's just life, that's the world we're living in That's the way it's gonna be 'cause that's the way it's always been

Things change, don't blink your eye
'Cause if you do, they'll pass you by
About the time you think you've locked it in
Things change, then change again

Things change, don't blink your eye
'Cause if you do, they'll pass you by
About the time you think you've locked it in
Things change, then change again

Things change and then they change again
