

Ain't No Telling

Bobby "Blue" Bland

Lay down your rules
And watch me obey, yeah
Honor anything you want
You know I wanna pay

If you ever do me wrong, girl
As good as I've been telling
Ain't no telling, I said there
Ain't no telling what I might do

You put on your fine clothes
And you went out last night
You had yourself a good time
But that's all right

If I ever find out
Through the grapevine
That you've been untrue
No, there ain't no telling
I said there ain't no telling
Woman, what I might do

I'll hire you a maid
And let you rest so when
I come home in the evening
You can be at your very best

But if you ever break my heart
And leave me so blue
No, there ain't no telling
Lord, there ain't no telling
Woman, what I might do
