

Dreamer

Bobby "Blue" Bland

Dreamer, dreamer,
like a fool I thought that it could be.
Dream on, dream on, surely someone will understand me.
What do I say when I've said too much?
I think by now I'm wastin' time.

I'm going, oh Lord, Lord, I'm gone.
You are the absence of my mind.
Lord, dreamer, I'm a dreamer.
Like a fool I thought that it could be.

Dream on, dream on,
surely someone, someone will understand me.
Down the wrong way on a one way street,
You'd think by now I would have learned.

I saw a little, ohhh, but I, but I learned my lesson.
I only learn, I only learn to regret.
Lord, dreamer, dreamer,
like a fool I thought, I thought it could be.

Dream on, dream on,
surely someone, someone will understand me.
Dreamer, dreamer,
like a fool I thought that it could be.
Dream on, surely someone,
someone will understand me.

What do I say, when I said too much?
And I think by now I'm wastin' time.
I'm going, Lord, I'm gone, yeah.
Surely someone, someone will understand me.
Dream on, yea, dream on, dream on, dream on.
