

The Feeling Is Gone

Bobby "Blue" Bland

When I needed you
To stand my side
All you did was
Laugh while I cried
Now you want me to
Take you back in my arms

Oh, oh, it's too late, baby
I'm here to tell you
That the feeling is gone

I really loved
The look on your face
Whoa, when you told me
That I was being replaced
Now you're begging me
You say you wanna
Come back home

Whoa, whoa
It's too late, baby
I'm standing here to tell you
The feeling is gone

You told me to hit the road
And I did just that
Now you found out that you need me
But, oh, I ain't coming back

Now you say you want me
To take you back in my arms
Oh, I said it's too late, baby
Lord, I tell you the feeling is gone
