Bobby Brackins

Yeah, yeah

Oh, oh

Oh, na, na, yeah

Oh, oh

Same situations in even the most peaceful person's life

May provoke the most gentle being to kill

Those situations aren't looked forward to

But if you love something that much

Might have to rethink your entire mentality

If you got something to kill for

You probably got something to live for

You might just have something to die for

If you got something to kill for

To kill for

If you got something to kill for

If you got something to

If you got something to

If you got something to kill for

To kill for
