

Baby, I Wanna Tell You Something

Bobby Brown

I'm the one, I'm the one
I'm, I'm the one you
I'm, king of stage
I'm, king of stage

Baby, I wanna tell you something
I'm the one you need
Baby, I wanna tell you something
For you my heart bleeds

Baby, I wanna tell you something
The way we feel is not a sin
Baby, I wanna tell you something
Just let the love begin

In one sense, it's curiosity
The rest is just formality
I see that look in your eyes
And your clever combinations
Breaking young hearts
Must be your occupation

Checking my Swatch, she was right on time
She walked so hot, hot, hot
Too sweet, a visual treat
One look and I'd leave my feet

Won't apologize for the way I feel
She shook me up with the rock and reel
I asked the girl if she was ready to ride
Three seconds later she was by my side

Baby, I wanna tell you something
I'm the one you need
Baby, I wanna tell you something
For you my heart bleeds

Baby, I wanna tell you something
The way we feel is not a sin
Baby, I wanna tell you something
Just let the love begin

What you've got is too hot to handle
For the ordinary guy and try they must
But with you they bite the dust
It seems they like that certain style

The night, baby, at our favorite spot
She gave me a kiss that I never forgot
I wasn't ready to turn in yet
But she said nothing more, I would get

So I guess I have to overwhelm you
Pick a star in the sky and I'll send you
Just grab my hand and let it shake
And listen to my drum while it starts to break

B.Brown, B.Brown
My name is B.Brown, B.Brown

L-l-listen

Baby, I wanna tell you something
I'm the one you need
Baby, I wanna tell you something
For you my heart bleeds

Baby, I wanna tell you something
The way we feel is not a sin
Baby, I wanna tell you something
Just let the love begin

Jump on it

King of stage
King of stage
King of stage

King of stage
King of stage

Baby, I wanna tell you something

Baby, I wanna tell you something
I'm the one you need
Baby, I wanna tell you something
For you my heart bleeds

Baby, I wanna tell you something
The way we feel is not a sin
Baby, I wanna tell you something
Just let the love begin
