

I'm Your Friend

Bobby Brown

I promise to stay through the rain
And I told you I'd stick close through the pain
Didn't I say

I promise to go the extra mile
And when you're feeling sad
Will volunteer the smile

'Cause I'm your friend
And I'm there
Just say when
Yes, I'm your friend
And I will love you
'Til the end

Now even though they'll be times
We won't agree
But the love we share
I know will always be

I will tell you
When right,
And yes, when wrong
'Cause it's the truth I love
And always take along

For we know love is patient
And love is kind, yeah
This friendship I treasure
God gave is mine
He made us friends
And I will love you
'Til the end
