

Your Tender Romance

Bobby Brown

Girl have you noticed
I'm sincere
I'm not like these other guys
That come to check you out
They want to love you
Leave you here
That's not the kind of love
My love is all about

Candle light and roses
Even send the indication
Of the way I feel
What I want is a

Your tender
Your tender romance
The kind where boy meets girl
Surrender
Your tender romance
'Cause it's the best love in the world

Your love impatience
Day by day
I've been trying desperately
To get my point across
And all I really wanna say is
No matter what you do
With me you're better off

If I could have forever
And two can live as one
What I want is a

Your tender (yes)
Your tender romance
The kind where boy meets girl yeah
Surrender
Your tender romance
'Cause it's the best love in the world

Your tender
Your tender romance
I'll give you everything you never ever dreamed before
Surrender
Sweet tender romance
Ain't no other man baby will love you more

I'll wine and dine you
Send you flowers everyday yeah
Girl I'll stand behind you
You ain't never had a man that's truly true this way

My name is Bobby Brown

I want to love you sweet
And romantically
I got many ways to prove my love is true
