

Silly Willy

Bobby Darin

Silly, silly Willy
So silly
Silly, silly Willy
So silly

Willy's always dreaming
Always scheming
Silly, silly Willy
So silly

But it ain't no joke
When your dreams go up in smoke
Now ain't it a shame
About Willy?

Listen to the story
About Willy the weeper
Willy the weeper
Was a long time sleeper
He went to sleep one night
And dreamed so bad
Now let me tell you about the dream
That little Willy had

Well, he feel asleep a-lying
On his living room floor
The next thing that he knew
He's on a foreign shore
He met a pretty girly
By the name of Yvette
They started then to kissing
And started then to pet

Then he woke up
Boy was he mad
He nearly broke up
What a dream Willy had

He began to shout
Cause the dream wore out
Now ain't it a shame
About Willy?

Willy was a-dreaming
About money one night
There were millions of dollars
In his dreamy-eyed sight
He started then a-stuffing
Till his pockets were full
But someone on the outside
Gave his blankets a fold

Then he woke up
Boy was he mad
He nearly broke up

He began to shout
Cause the dream wore out
Now ain't it a shame
About Willy?

Willy was a-dreaming
About an automobile
With a paradigm and headlights
And a gold steering wheel
He was gonna drive it
On a bright, sunny day
When the finance company came
And took it away

Then he woke up
Boy was he mad
He nearly broke up
What a dream Willy had

He began to shout
Cause the dream wore out
Now ain't it a shame
About Willy?

So silly
Willy, Willy
Willy
So silly

Willy's always dreaming
Always scheming
Silly, silly Willy
So silly

Silly, silly Willy
So silly
Silly, silly Willy
So silly

Willy, Willy, Willy
So silly
