

You're Mine

Bobby Darin

You're mine, at last you're mine
I know it took a long, long time
For you to fall in love with me
I know, I know, I know, I know

Mine, mmm, after all is said and done
I knew that you would be the one
It was plain to see
Whoa yeah, I know, I know

You played hard to get, hoping I'd forget
And go and find me somebody new
You played a waiting game, I loved you just the same
But you forgot that I could play as well as you

And now you're mine
I know, I know, I know, I know
You're mine, and now the wedding bells will chime
And I'll know you're mine... mmm

I know, I know, I know, I know you're mine
I know, I know, I know you're mine
