

Bitter Teardrops

Bobby Vinton

Teardrops, bitter teardrops
Falling for someone who doesn't know
That I am crying, yes I am crying
And I'll be crying wherever I go

For I have lost you forever more
My heart is broken, my eyes are sore
From teardrops, bitter teardrops
That stain my pillow whenever I sleep

I'm crying, oh how I'm crying,
Crying my eyes out over you
I'm begging, oh how I'm begging
For all those things we used to do

Since you have left me, my heart has bled
My mind is tortured, my eyes are red
From teardrops, bitter teardrops
But I can't help wond'ring
Do you have bitter teardrops too?
