

Heaven's Gonna Miss You

Bobby Vinton

Oh, heaven's gonna miss you, baby
Ev'ry minute that you're here with me
I never knew till I found you
How wonderful an angel could be

Yes, heaven's gonna miss you, baby
But heaven knows that I've been all alone
So they arranged to send an angel
And heaven's gonna miss you while you're gone

It's the first time an angel ever told me
That I'm the only one she'll ever love
And ev'ry time your arms reach out to hold me
I'll close my eyes and thank the Lord above

For heaven must have known I need you
And sent you here to be my very own
But I only know I love you so
And heaven's gonna miss you while you're gone

(It's the first time an angel ever told me
That I'm the only one she'll ever love)
And ev'ry time your arms reach out to hold me
I'll close my eyes and thank the Lord above

For heaven must have known I need you
And sent you here to be my very own
But I only know I love you so
And heaven's gonna miss you while you're gone
Yes, heaven's gonna miss you while you're gone
