

So Many Sides Of You

Bobby Womack

I'm up to my heart in teardrops
Out of my mind over you
Girl, you're so hard to get next to Impossible to see through?

So, many doors are open
Oh, I might get lost in you
So keep your heart open, baby
Just in case I do

Cause there's so many sides of you
So many sides of you, da da da
Just in case I make a connection, baby
And my love might have a chance to just come shining through
So many sides of you

So many sides of you

Say, girl
I got my limitations
And oh, girl so do you
You see, I've got my education
Livin' right next door to the school of rules

So many doors to open
Oh, I might get lost in you
So keep your heart open, baby
Just in case I do

There's so many sides of you
So many sides of you, da da da
Aw baby
Just in case I might make the connection, baby
And let the love, let the love come shining through
So many sides of you

So many sides of you

Aw, I'm up to my heart in teardrops
Out of my mind over you
There's so many doors to open
I just might get lost in you, well, well, well
(So many sides of you) So many side of you

(There's so many sides of you)
And I might get lost in you (of you)

So keep, keep your heart open (So many sides of you)
Just in case I do, so many sides
(There's so many sides of you)
I'm tryin' to see 'em all baby (of you)
So many sides (So many sides of you)
I'm tryin' to see 'em all baby (So many sides of you)
Tryna see 'em all baby
I'm looking (There's so many sides of you)
Tryin' see em all, baby (of you)
You got me, you got me lookin' baby

There's so many sides of you
There's so many sides of you
