

Thank You

Bobby Womack

You, oh yeah, look
You turned my whole world around, yeah
It was the goodness of your love
That took away the frown, yeah

I wanna thank you, girl
For being so nice
For all the things you had to sacrifice
Let me thank you
Oh, I, I wanna thank you, girl

I never, no, no, no, I never, never thought
That I'd ever love before
But it was you that had the key
To open up the door, baby

I wanna take time out to thank you, girl
For being so nice
And all the things you had to sacrifice
Let me thank you
Oh, let me thank you, baby

You, let me tell you, baby
You are all I'll ever love and ever need
You're my first cup of coffee early in the morning
And my last cup of tea

Would you mind if I thank you, girl
For being so kind
You stayed right with me
But you could have left me behind
Let me thank you
Oh, I wanna thank you, girl

I wonder would you all mind if
I just let the music play?
Play your guitar, Bobby

Oh, oh, I'm so thankful, girl
I'm so thankful, girl
