

You

Bobby Womack

Oh-oh, you
Make me wonder
If I ever want another
You seem to be all I need
Oh, baby, and I often wonder
How I'd feel if I lost you
That thought chills my body
Through and through

Oh, you have always been
My one and only sunshine
The only real possession
That I could really say was mine
So baby don't think of leaving
'Cause it would leave me crying
Honey please, keep your dreams
Of love here at home
Yeah, yeah

Gon' play it for me babe
Oh, it sounds so good

Oh, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
I like that

Last night as we slept together
Over the fire place
You know
I realize for the first time
How much of my life
You have become, so you wanna come over?

After one big moment I thought
I'll be alone again
And that's when I talked to myself
I say self, tell her please
Keep her dreams of love
Here at home, yeah, yeah
Honey please, do me a favour
And keep your dreams at home
Yeah, yeah
