

Bad Decisions

Bobi Andonov

Maybe we could make some bad decisions
I love how you're fucking when you're jealous
Got you in the mood feeling hellish
And the moonlight got us making bed decisions

It's a feeling you can't hide from me
And it's eating up inside of me
Kissing off all my anxiety
Think I might just give my all to you
Can't feel a thing unless I'm touching you
So baby tell me what you're trying to do

You don't care who I came with
As long as I'm leaving with you babe

Maybe we could make some bad decisions
I love how you're fucking when you're jealous
Got you in the mood feeling hellish
And the moonlight got us making bed decisions
Love the way you look at your reflection
And looking back at me like this is heaven
Got you in the mood feeling hellish
And the moonlight got us making bed decisions

I don't care you can tell all your friends
You dug deep and now I'm falling in Wanna offer you my innocence or what's left of it

I don't care who I came with
As long as I'm leaving with you

Maybe we could make some bad decisions
I love how you're fucking when you're jealous
Got you in the mood, feeling hellish
And the moonlight got us making bed decisions
Love the way you look at your reflection
And looking back at me like this is heaven
Got you in the mood, feeling hellish
And the moonlight got us making bed decisions

Ooo
Bad decisions
Ooo
Bad decisions

You don't care who I came with
As long as I'm leaving with you

Maybe we could make some bad decisions
I love how you're fucking when you're jealous
Got you in the mood, feeling hellish
And the moonlight got us making bed decisions
