

Anyone but You

BoDeans

Stuck on the freeway
Waiting in line
Hundreds of souls waiting
At the same time
Just wanting to move some
Hoping to find
Something that feels good
Just one more time

Drifting through neon
Down mercy street
But strangers don't bring me
Relief from the heat
Remember the times girl?
Surely you do
'Cause we were so happy
If only you knew

And I won't break my heart in two
For anyone but you
I won't let my soul go no
For anyone but you
Won't give my hopes up no
For anyone but you
Won't break my heart in two
For anyone but you

Soulless devices
They can never fill
These human desires
And they never will
I'm living with choices
Until the end
But I'm willing to do it
Do it again and again and again

I won't break my heart in two
For anyone but you
I won't let my soul go no
For anyone but you
Won't give my hopes up no
For anyone but you
Won't break my heart in two
For anyone but you

For anyone but you
For anyone but you

For anyone but you
