

Everything You Wanted

BoDeans

Yeah there you go in your hard way
Now you're bending fundamental rules of reality
Can you calm down just for a while
Are you brave enough just staying on safe ground
All I say, do what you want to do
No, don't you lock away your serious heart
Or you would tear my insider ways apart

Well it's foolish misery and foolish pride
That can keep that little light locked up deep inside
All I say, do what you want to do
And I wanna be as close as I can
Wanna hold that burning flame
Won't you let it contain my whole hand
All I say, do what you want to do
