

So Fine

BoDeans

Saw her in a movie about a rich man
That tried to be poor
She came on the screen just like a goddess
From the heavens, so much more

She's so fine
She's so fine
She's so fine

With a sexy voice that raises your attention
From the very first round
You know every time I hear her speak
I find myself longing for the very next sound

She's so fine
She's so fine
She's so fine

Glowing like the lights of New York City
Blowing like the warm breeze out of Chicago

I'm singing for the one that goes by the name Veronica
And I'm wishing, I'm wishing on a star overlooking the lake

She's so fine
She's so fine
She's so fine

She's so fine
She's so fine
She's so fine
