BODEGA

Every morning when I wake up
Same clicks to the same sites every day
Same things go in my body
Same thoughts fill my brain

And so often I forget what I'm trying to accomplish
Bookmarks to myself keep my eyes on the mission
Eyes on the mission, yeah
The mission
Eyes on the mission, yeah

All day at work, stare at computer
Come home from work, stare at computer
Do my own work, stare at computer
Rest and relax, stare at computer
With the ones and the zeros, stare at computer
The ones go in the zeros, stare at computer
Mother nature is ones and zeros, stare at computer
When I die and meet my maker I will stare at computer

And I refresh to not forget what I'm trying to accomplish
Write notes to myself, keep my eyes on the mission
Eyes on the mission, yeah
The mission
Eyes on the mission, yeah

All day at work, stare at computer
Come home from work, stare at computer
Do my own work, stare at computer
I'm reading an article at work, stare at computer
A Japanese boy in Odaiba, stares at computer
Has a seizure playing Pokemon, stare at computer
Seventy two hours of gameplay, stare at computer
When he dies and meets his maker he will stare at computer

And I back up to not forget what I'm trying to accomplish
Write marks on myself to keep my eyes on the mission
Eyes on the mission, yeah
The mission
Eyes on the mission, yeah
