

G.N.D. Deity

BODEGA

Our brand could be your life
(Hello?)

Tuesday morning, 10 a.m
What's the price for fun, they say?
Another breathless voice on the line
Tuesday morning, 10 a.m
Two tabs open, Brooklyn Blonde
He's getting off backpage dot com
He's seen my spread

See me standing naked in the mirror
How far will you take it?
You use your hands like you've been educated
Educated

She's headless in his office
On the line, he's on his knees
Screen and the G.N.D
Deity brings release
When the ATM speaks
It has a voice that's oh so sweet
Doff the hat into the hand
Shield the face and take that green

See him swiping with his card at the corner
How far will he take it?

I'm getting off at the next train stop
I'm getting off at the next bus stop
How do you touch? That's your language
Your language is touched with it
How do you touch? That's your language
Your language, what you touch with it

See you standing naked in the mirror
How far will you take it?
Writing a review on your phone
You're so educated
