

Statuette On The Console

BODEGA

I never was born with God
Never had a need to rape or pillage
When I live on this earth and try no hurt more than necessary

Oh I know, I'll never know who's fantasy I'll be apart
But God don't be confused you ain't getting any part of my attitude
You're just a

Statuette on the console
Statuette on the console, Oh

I never was a therapist
But I've listened to strange realities
And I tried to make sense of it
Its value never ceded

Oh I know, I'll never know who's fantasy I'll be apart
But God don't be confused you ain't getting any part of my attitude
You're just a

Statuette on the console
Statuette on the console, Oh
I never know just how to give control
Statuette on the console, Oh

Oh I know, I'll never know who's fantasy I'll be apart
But God don't be confused, I've been living my life with my plattitudes

Statuette on the console
Statuette on the console, Oh
I never know how to give control
Statuette on the console, Oh
