

Another Level

Body Count

I didn't fall to negativity I stayed strong
I pushed past all adversity and hate
You never believed in anything I tried to do
All my dreams to you were nothin' but a fuckin' waste
I elevated my grind, I rose above the pain
I came I conquered never quit yes I fuckin' won
Now you're hatin' 'cause I'm winnin' and you fuckin' lost
You said I'd never be shit

Now I'm on another level
A whole different level
I'm on a different fuckin' level
Now I'm on another level
I'm on another level
A whole different level
I'm on a different fuckin' level

No way that you could bring me down, you can't get in my brain
Your life is miserable, I'm on a higher plane
All you non-believers I chose to beat the game
You said I didn't have what it takes

Now I'm on another level
A whole different level
I'm on another level

Yeah you know what it's like first startin' out
You got dreams, everybody got dreams
Nobody believes nobody believes you're gonna you're gonna pull it off
Fuck 'em
They say why waste your time
I was in the hood they say Ice
Just get high with us man just chill man
You ain't never gonna get outta here
That's some bullshit
We black, man, we're supposed to be poor
I was like fuck that shit
Man there's things I got to do with my life man
I ain't gonna lay around here
I'm gonna bust my motha fuckin' ass whether you believe in me or not
I hustle my ass off night and motha fuckin' day

Now I'm on another level
I'm on another level
A whole different level
I'm on a different fuckin' level
Now I'm on another level
I'm on another level
A whole different level
I'm on a different fuckin' level
