

The Winner Loses

Body Count

My friend's addicted to cocaine smokes day and night drives mom and pop insane Living his life in the dark light every dollar he gets goes into the pipe

He wants to borrow some money from me do you think I'm blind don't know the score can't see?

You wanna get high as the sky
You're kissin' your life goodbye
You think it's game that you play
But the winners lose it all someday.

Ya don't know who you are are you losin' your mind?
Things get a little tight he committed a crime.
Give me your money or give me your life!
You betta empty your pockets because ya, ya don't live twice.

You gonne get high as the sky
You're kissin' your life goodbye
You think it's a game that you play
But the winners lose it all someday.

He took the money to the dope man and he said he had the best next thing ya knew, cardiac arrest!
It was a rollercoaster, he couldn't get off next thing I knew my friends' life was lost. Nooooooooooooo

you wanna get high as the sky
You're kissin' your life goodbye
You think it's a game that you play
But the winners lose it all someday.
