

Another Minute

Bodyjar

Wait, another minute
I'm not finished yet
I'm not quite ready to walk away, now

Steal another second
I caught you home
If feel so lonely and used but I'm washing the bruises away

Watch you for an hour
It's not over yet
It fades but I won't let it go away now
No is not a reason, it's not a thing to say
Now I just won't let it go
Obsession is close to breaking me

Waiting here for my reply
Even if I don't get it
Waiting here for my reply
I don't know how to die
I'm starting to believe in changes

I never thought it wouldn't Feel like yesterday
That you ran away
And now I'm older getting over my mistakes
I just lie awake
You gonna get pushed away I hate to say
That I knew right from the start
But you don't care, you don't care
