

Abide

Bodysnatcher

Bleed

Bleed and abide
It's not your time
Bleed and abide
Don't believe your own lies

I see it on so many faces
The look of the hopeless
Like they've already died
Too many have bled out
From the inside
Too many have bled out
From the inside

Sever the cold hand from your neck
And let it bleed
Don't look back

Bleed and abide
It's not your time
Bleed and abide
Don't believe your own lies

I still fight and bleed every fucking day
Searching for an answer
Wishing you had stayed
Catch me so I don't fall
Let me crawl on my own and earn my scars

Persist against the odds
Persist against the odds
I don't need your fucking help

I see it still on my own face
Life keeps beating me down
Heading against the wind
I'm not hopeless
I won't give in
I'm not hopeless
I won't give in

Sever the cold hand from your neck
Forget the way that you used to think

This is a reminder to myself
That I am stronger than I know
Bleed abide, bleed abide
To look forward is to grow

I persist against the odds
To keep the demons at bay
