

Take Me To Hell

Bodysnatcher

I lay here spiraling inside
I've tried everything to make it stop
I'm falling
My mind is rotting
Locked here and I've had enough

Another day frozen like the art on the walls
A paralyzed shell
I'm tired here
Confined to my mind
Confined to my mind
No one understands
My body beaten and bruised

My soul feels tired
Take me to hell

An empty hopelessness

No one understands

When will I feel safe to be myself
My disinterest swarms all that I used to hold
I've grown cold against my will
I want to be somewhere else

It doesn't matter
Whether it's the black of night
Or the sun is shining
It will be pouring rain

My lungs scream in my chest
Is this really for the best
I've sunk too deep
So I'll see you when I sleep
My mind goes dark
It's all blackness

Confined to my mind
A black hole inside
Smiled like I was fine
But no one recognized

Take me to hell
