

8 Days

Boldy James

Don't make me make examples out you niggas' families
Take one of mine, take ten of theirs, it's time to up the ante
Babysitting all these bricks, I think I need a nanny
Lost a plug, went MIA, I found one in Miami

Eight days of good coke (Where we at with it?)
Eight days of good cocaine (Bo Jackson)
Eight days of good cocaine (Let's get it)
Don't you witness me, I was never seen, you see?

Migo hit Wop off of three icks of the ooh-wee
Only nigga still be on that street shit, I'm in too deep
Got hit with the package, shout OT, was back in two weeks
Touch back down in AZ, now I'm feeling rather unique
Shout out to the God's Son, I got niggas out in QB
Chain so fucking litty, woulda thought I signed to QC
Dead game, ain't no getting off, you can't boo-woo me
Never gave a fuck what niggas thought 'cause I'ma do me
Stand down soldier, better salute me or shoot me
Five hundred a circle, whack the 2G for the QP
Popping out the Lam, twenty crammed in my Ksubis
I was already the man 'fore my fans ever knew me
Hundred thou' platinum and ice, hundred bands in the Louis
This the soundtrack to my life, no advance for the movie
Took my first trip with the white, poured my first zip in a Sprite
Was the third pick like I'm Mike, and these niggas say I'm Bowie
Let's get it

Babysitting all these bricks, I think I need a nanny
Lost a plug, went MIA, I found one in Miami
Heavy press, might get nominated for a Grammy
Ran it up, forgot to stretch, I damn near pulled a hammy
I was the one before they even knew I had it in me
These niggas know I might be smiley but was never friendly

In my last eight days, I probably sold eight thangs
Broke the other eight down into eight four ways
62 to 104, that's some good cocaine
Met my plug in Italy, the first time I ate Romaine
He dropped numbers on the prices, I bought eight more thangs
Told him, "Send me fifty more in 'bout eight more days"

Slide him a room key, it's 250 and 808
It's insurance on the work so we a-okay
Hopped on a flight headed to Phoenix, now we touring the Valley
Finesse the plug out the ten, drove 'em, back out to Cali
I hit Boldy, hit Bo, send me two more addys
Stopped on Rodeo, did some shopping, sippin lean in the Fanta
