A long time ago, someone thought of designing Detroit after Paris
Detroit once was called, "The City Beautiful"
It is now called the murder capital of the United States
Of the ten biggest cities, Detroit has the highest per capita homicide rate
Two-way, deuce, siete

Big bucks, no whammies when I shoot my jammy
Ridin' 'round with that slammy, time to up the ante
Posted up on that concrete, my feet firmly planted
Catch a body, spend the summer in Miami
We want all the Roxicodones and the Addies
Got the R's from my auntie, syrup from my granny
Chopper switch on fully, keep a Glock in handy
My bitch pretty, pink pussy taste like cotton candy
Way I ran that guap up, niggas think I'm scamming
Way I step on that wop, I damn near pulled a hammy
Big pole behind tints, look like a nigga camping
Can't no nigga on this planet ever say they stamped me
Remember posted on the Fink, was servin' out the grandies
Last of a dying breed, the trillest nigga standing
Still pitchin' on the hand and all my footwork fancy

Got tricky moves when I'm dancing, champs was made from chances
Yeah
Got tricky moves when I'm dancing, champs was made from chances
Uh
Got tricky moves when I'm dancing, champs was made from chances

Ayy
In other crimes of violence also, Detroit is among the statistical leaders
Robbery, assault, and rape
Let's get it

It get tricky on the dancefloor, one strum of the banjo
Enough pull to get a nigga knocked down for a couple bandos
We can both pull them sticks out, lil' nigga, what it hit 'bout?
Make a nigga do a dismount for the five finger discount
Quick to get a nigga life stole, water in my veins ice cold
Eight hundred gram bust Cuban, twenty-four carat white gold
Old school runnin' on turbo blue, but I'm burnin' nitros
With a bad bitch and all my ice on her from the murder maestros
Let my ho shake her ass on the 'Gram so she could get her likes on Paid a couple racks for my bitch kicks, she ain't got no Mikes on Back then hoes didn't want me, now a nigga feel like Mike Jones
Bought so much ice up in Hutch, I'm the one who keep the lights on

Yeah
Got tricky moves when I'm dancing, champs was made from chances
Uh
Got tricky moves when I'm dancing, champs was made from chances
Ayy
Got tricky moves when I'm dancing, champs was made from chances
Let's get it
Got tricky moves when I'm dancing, champs was made from chances

They give themselves names like Hollywood, Silky, Dandy, and Snake
Who are they? How do they get women to prostitute themselves?

The man who would be nothing without his woman, pimp
The dictionary's not certain of the origin of the word, but that's not important
Everyone knows what it means
