

Met Me

Boldy James

Mama gave up on me early, damn near called it quits
GxFR the clique, me and West, we got a partnership
If I ever fall off, he gon' hit me with a starter kit
Something like a moving target 'cause I'm hard to hit
A hundred shots so anything be looking kind of sketchy
What else?

Say he connected with Blocks, just ask him how he met me
Water on, but with Lonnie, it ain't like I been heavy
The pie so muddy, shit look like I poured up in the Petri
The pie so heavy, I water whip a whole 36
Like a Jet Ski
Ha, I sold so much ice, they call me Lonnie Gretzsky
Say he connected with Blocks, just ask him how he met me
Put my whole wrist in the pot, then I pull out a Presi'

'Til this day, can't name a gang member that I betrayed
Remember pulling all-nighters in my Michael Js
Caught the sniffles in the freezing cold for some icy Yes
Now when I pop out, it's either Rolls or the white 'Scalade
Light show around my neck look like a Ice Capade
Did wrong for all the right reasons tryna right my ways
He say he want his biggie fry filet, told him
"Could snatch this out the pot and put it right back in the microwave"
I sell ice in the winter, I sold fire in hell
So much white on Virginia, I can retire my scale
Been roadside at the Shell since gold wire gazelles
Touching down on the 6, I was gold lining with kills
Baselining with Young, gang timing with one
Long live my nigga Jacques, I know gang died with the stump
On the Hummy, want the kid who shot that BB gun
First of the month, I twist that 'caine up like a CD run
Still piecing all the 9, was just me and Jerron
In the kitchen, picking through the blinds like a Peeping Tom
He say he tied 'em with us, just ask him what he [?]
All of this twerk, I could make girlie start a OnlyFans

Say he connected with Blocks, just ask him how he met me
Water on, but with Lonnie, it ain't like I been heavy
The pie so muddy, shit look like I poured up in the Petri
The pie so heavy, I water whip a whole 36
Like a Jet Ski

I'm what you call a real stand-up individual
Bojack called me evil genius gangster intellectual Lil' bro lit up so many candlelights, he spiritual
The stove been exposed to so much white like pickerels
This shit got me exhausted but you don't feel me though
We use them blicks for real, that's why I don't put 'em in my videos
All 'a sudden, hear a body wanna talk scam and dope?
You ain't never slept with one eye open and your sneakers on Rolling so hard, any time they can kick the door
These rap niggas wanna sell a brick, I wanna get that a show
You ain't never count so many pills, they got your fingers swole

Say he connected with Blocks, just ask him how he met me
Water on, but with Lonnie, it ain't like I been heavy
The pie so muddy, shit look like I poured up in the Petri
The pie so heavy, I water whip a whole 36
Like a Jet Ski
