

Plottin

Boldy James

Yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah
Ohhhh
Yeah
Right
Yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah
Ohhhh
Yeah

Iced out the bridge on my white buffs
Gotta make a move, y'all know what's up
Got haters all around me, Devil tryna stop me
But God done blessed me so I don't G-A-F
A couple painkillers to the face now
Gang sign gang sing, bang the Eastside
Money ain't a problem, this is not an option
Gotta keep it on me cause I know they plottin'
Yeah I know they plottin' (Gotta keep it on me)
Yeah I know they plottin', yeah I know they plottin' (Switch the Cartier's)
Cause I know they watching, yeah I know they watching (What else)
Gotta keep it on me, cause I know they plottin' (Where we at with it?)
Yeah I know they plottin', yeahhh

I know they scheming, know they plotting, wanna swipe my line
I know these streets is hard-knock but this the life and times
Never been a credit-card fraud Chase scammer
Was trapping out my Rush card, I'm a Def-Jammer
Pulling nighters in the spot, looking for the lighter
Cause had it in his pocket, I forgot he licked the pilot
I pray to God my niggas eat it till they get the itis
To all my niggas that's deceased a moment of silence
As I spill this Morton Grove from a gold chalice
Told brodie we moving to Cali but he chose Dallas
I know some girls in the valley from the Armory
Who want all of the Lorcets and Addies out the pharmacy
Eleven twenty for a seal these niggas charging me
The eight-eighty, that's fifty-five a line I need the seventy
Official tissue blow the whistle like a referee
Why niggas tryna sneak peak, check the recipe
Let's get it

Iced out the bridge on my white buffs
Gotta make a move, y'all know what's up
Got haters all around me, Devil tryna stop me

Taking what I want cause ain't no limits in life
It cost to waste my time, make him pay with his life
I'm the mother fucking man, niggas hate me for it

But I had to hit the road Jack, what you waiting for?
Text me if you want, I'mma take it from you (Gimme that)
Fly as a drone, off the carry-on
It ain't a monkey in the circus that could stop the show
I'm going first round pick in the league of hustle
I ain't slept in four days, put that monkey on me
We keep duffel bags full of that dirty money
I ain't Stunna but it took a stunt to double
This shit stuck to my hip turn you to a puzzle
Lottery nights, this the daily double
I know they plottin', we been 50-Gwuap-ing (Gwuap)
Bankroll left the bank bro I be massaging
Funny I just figured out that's my only option

Iced out the bridge on my white buffs
Gotta make a move, y'all know what's up
Got haters all around me, Devil tryna stop me
But God done blessed me so I don't G-A-F
