Forgotten Existence

Bolt Thrower

Storms calm neon skies Still chilling winds roam the nulear wastes Haunting the conscience of a forgotten existence Civilisation's mistake

Peace at last takes it's grip on the land For a moment time stands still Existing in the debris of bygone wars Hope breeds an incentive not to kill

Existence declines, extinction mankind A lifetime of time slips away

Resurrect mankind sacrificed to power From ruins to the birth of a new reality Rising from the ashes of past destruction Civilisations, new existence

Lost in a void without future or past Shattered mind in the presence of pain Domineering desolation Controlling the solitary plains

Existence declines, extinction mankind A lifetime of time slips away

Darkest fears dwell in man's mind Insight to depths of what will be Reclaimation from the paths of destruction From ruins to the birth of a new reality

Construction from destruction Bringing back life to mankind Rebuilding an existence sacrificed for power A future with hope to find

Existence - Declines Extinction (of) Mankind Lifetime - Of time Now slips - Away
