

9/11 Fever!!!

Bomb the Music Industry!

We can't forget 3,000 lives.
We got the flag to prove it.
We got the sticker and the bracelet.
We got a list of specials
and we set the DVR so we won't miss it.
We waste no time.

I got the fever for a feature,
a new target for a campaign speech
and a couple cents off at the pump tonight.

You want the action hit of the summer
where Nick Cage really learns something or the made-for-TV suspense-thriller
where the pimp from Taxi Driver is attacking Clinton's credibility?
Or how about some amateur footage of southern Virginians crying
to the camera
and shopping at Rite-Aid buying flags
to translate what they gotta prove on this year's anniversary.
We're mourning the loss, oh what can ya do but make the evening news logo red white and blue! Boo hoo!

I got the fever for a feature,
a new target for a campaign speech
and another moot point on the floor tonight.

I got the fever for a feature,
a holiday for a high school teacher
and a couple cents off at the pump tonight.
