

Listen

Bombshell Rocks

Now, so did you listen
You bastards you miserable fucking bastards
I took you into my home, and I opened up to you
I heard you talkin' about me around town
My business is mine asshole, mind your own

Hey back the fuck out you motherfuckin' punk
When i'm out on the streets you'd better run
All you backstabbing motherfuckers out there
Press play for your worst fucking nightmare
I got something to say
