

There's A Rhytmn

Bon Iver

Can I feel another way?
Or are less and more the same?
Can I really still complain?
To be back here once again
There are miles and miles of tape
You can watch it, it's been saved
There's a rhytmn to reclaim
Get tall and walk away

There's a rhytmn, there's a rhytmn
There's a rhytmn, there's a rhytmn

I've had one home that I've known
And maybe it's the time to go
I could leave behind the snow
For a land of palm and gold
But there are miles and miles to go
And I've been down this road before
There's another chance to show
No need to crow no more

Day rider, day rider
Stay lighter, stay lighter
Day fighter, day fire
Stay minding, and mine it

I went to see you there in Spain
That was a month ago and change
And now I think you need some space
I will pause and stand with spade
'Cause you really are a babe
And how you treat me good your way
Ya know I've really no more shame
Now things really are arranged

There's a rhytmn, there's a rhytmn
There's a rhytmn, there's a rhytmn
There's a rhytmn, there's a rhytmn

There's a rhytmn, there's a rhytmn
There's a rhytmn, there's a rhytmn
