

I Want You

Bon Jovi

E B C#m A B7 E B C#m A A

F#m

1. The last time that I saw her

E

Was the night she said goodbye

F#

She said that love's a stranger

E

And it's sure to pass you by (yesterday)

C#m

As she packed up her belongings

A E

Baby wouldn't look me in the eye

B

But I could see s tear roll off her face

A B7

As we tried so hard not to cry, she said

E B

R: I never wanted the stars

C#m

I never shot for the moon

A

I like them right where they are

B7

All I wanted was you

E B

So baby just turn away

C#m

Because I can't face the truth

A

All i'm trying to say

B7 E

Is all I wanted was you

F#m

2. I tried so hard to remember

E

Where when how why love went away

F#m

I tried to drown myself in pity

E

But the memory kept calling your name (yesterday)

C#m

I brought you fancy cars and diamond rings

A

All the things that my money brings

E

And the servants to paint the sky blue

B

And I worked so hard seven days a week

A

And build a fotress for your heart to keep

B7

If I could I'd wrap these words up for you ... yeah

R: I never wanted the stars...

C#m A

I want you, I want you

C#m B Asm C#m

Baby, I want you....

A

But never thought you were alone

F#m

I filled the party up with company

B7 C#m B Asm F#m

But never made our house a home

E F#m A E E F#m A A

E C#m

All I got is my guitar these chords and the truth

A B7

All I got is my guitar... baby all I want

R: I never wanted the stars...

C#m A

I want you. I want you

C#m B Asm C#m

Baby, I want you

C#m A

I want you, I want you

C#m B Asm C#m

Baby, I want you...
