When She Comes

Outside this world keeps turnin round London bridge keeps burnin down But itll be all right, oooh

No one hears our silent screams In this land of broken dreams But itll be all right, when she comes

Itll be all right, when she comes Itll all be tight, when she comes

And when I lie she still believes She dont ask why, shes there for me When it gets hard, shes all I need to get by

I hear her voice in a thousand places I try so hard, still I cant escape it Shes the one, when she comes, yeah

And if the sky come fallin down, I never ever even hear a sound Its true, shes as great a red As blue skies are blue

Everythings all right, when she comes Everythings all tight, when she comes

And when I lie she still believes She dont ask why, shes there for me When it gets hard, shes all I really need

Everythings all right, when she comes Itll all be tight, when she comes When she comes Its all right, its all right, when she comes Its all right, its all right, when she comes Its all right, its all right, its all right, when she comes Its all right, its all right, its all right, when she comes
