No I'm not drunk, I'm just dancing
No I'm not sick, it's my style
Well no I'm not dead, I'm just sleeping
Waking up will take a while

Well no I don't care what you're saying
No I do not want to talk
Well yes I got a mouth to feed
So I decide the way it will speak

You are you
I am me
You can stare but don't care (2x)

Well no I'm not drunk, I'm just dancing
No I'm not sick, it's my style
Well no I'm not dead, I'm just thinking
My way home might take a while Well no I don't care where I'm going
No I do not want to know
Well yes it's true I look at you
But no this is not a gun in my pocket I'm just glad to see you

You are you
I am me
You can stare but don't care (2x)

It's too much
What are you gonna do with your life
I said what
What are you gonna do with your life
I said what
What are you gonna do with your life
I said what
What are you gonna do with your life
I said what
What am I gonna do with my life

Well I could use a gun, I could borrow a knife
You ask
What am I gonna do with my life

Well I could be your lover or the one of your wife, say what?
What am I gonna do with my time
I could be your enemy and you could be mine
Well I could steal a car or I could ride my bike
Well I could start to work but maybe I will only strike

What do you really care about it if I'm gonna start a hype
What if I am more the revolutionary type
What do you care about tomorrow
Do I talk about my past
You've got to get yourself a life or just as long as it will last

You are you
I am me
You can stare but don't care (2x)

I said what
What are you gonna do with your life
I said what
What are you gonna do with your life
I said what
What are you gonna do with your life
I said what
What are you gonna do with your life
I said what
What are you gonna do, what, what are you gonna do, what, what are you gonna do with your life
I said what
What are you gonna do, what, what are you gonna do, what, what are you gonna
do with your life

I said what!
