

Yeah

Yeah

I'm not as pretty as her, she's not as funny as me
I will never be that thin, she will never be this curvy
I got a new dress she'll never wanna wear
I think about what they think and she doesn't seem to care
I will never be that tall, she will never be this small
She can never do what I do, I can't do her vibe at all
She'll never be this cool, I will never be that hot
Lucky is that lucky does, we're happy with what we got

I will never be you, you'll never be me
So many things that I'll never be
L-O-V-E
I can never be you, I can only be me
I would never do that, you'll never do this
We'll never be them, they'll never be us
L-O-V-E
While you do you, I'll be busy being me

I'm not as slick as you, you're not as rough as me
If I'm Coca-Cola, man, you're totally Pepsi
I will never be an ocean, you will never be a wave
You will never blow it all and I will never learn to save
I wanna wear your boots so I can walk a mile
I wanna taste your tears, I wanna crack your smile
I will never be a version of the person you became
'Cause we got different blood
But it's running through the same veins

I will never be you, you'll never be me
So many things that I'll never be
L-O-V-E
I can never be you, I can only be me
I would never do that, you'll never do this
We'll never be them, they'll never be us
L-O-V-E
While you do you, I'll be busy being me

Uh-huh, uh-huh

Yeah

Uh-huh, uh-huh

Yeah

You can never compare an apple to a pear
A kick to a snare, a wasp to a bee
So while you do you, I'll be busy being me

I will never be you, you'll never be me
So many things that I'll never be
L-O-V-E
I can never be you, I can only be me
I would never do that, you'll never do this
We'll never be them, they'll never be us
L-O-V-E
While you do you, I'll be busy being me
